SHERIFF'S OFFICE USES EXECUTES SEARCH WARRANT, FINDS MARIJUANA GROWTH NEAR AKRON

AKRON – The Hale County Sheriff's Office executed a search warrant for illegal narcotics on Black Walnut Drive, off of Alabama Hwy 60 on Monday August 27th. Four large marijuana plants approximately seven feet tall were discovered growing on the property. In addition, deputies seized a large amount of marijuana and prescription drugs from the residence. Donald Wyatt, aged 50, and Natalie Snipes, aged 46, of Black Walnut Drive were arrested and charged with Trafficking Marijuana and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. Both suspects were booked and processed into the Hale County Jail, and are currently out on $11,000 bond, pending further action from the District Court. The Sheriff's Office would like to thank the Moundville Police Department for their assistance with this case.
